Thanks for choosing to order Custom Smuggler with us!!

As these pairs are made specifically for your liking, we're unable to sell them to the general public, and because of this there are a few terms and conditions to check out.

Colours:

We understand colours are important. Please note that colours on the screen may vary to how they're printed. Fluro colours in particular will look dull on screen but come printed with a punch! If you are really particular about the colours you require, please supply us your specific colours in CMYK.

IF YOU WANT TO BE 110% SURE, OUR DESIGNERS WILL BE HAPPY TO PRINT A STRIKE OFF FOR YOU FOR A FEE OF $20.

Please note this will extend your production time by 1 week. We will be unable to refund your order based on colour issues. So please opt for a strike off if colours are super important to you!

Sizing:

Please note we are unable to refund due to incorrect sizing chosen. If you are unsure of sizing, please try a stock pair from the online store, borrow a mate's pair or visit one of our stores.

Faulty:

This should rarely happen, but if your pairs are faulty, please let us know immediately! We will either be able to remake these for you if time permits or we can organise a full refund for these pairs. We'll require the original pairs to be returned to us at our cost.

Delivery Date:

Production is typically 3-4 weeks from receiving your payment. If you require your pairs for a specific date please let us know as early as possible and prior to paying for the order. We will let you know if this is possible and if so, do our best to meet this deadline. In the case where we miss an agreed deadline for a specific event, then there are two options.

We deliver the smugglers at a 40% discount.

We halt production and you'll be refunded any amount paid to date. Please note that the 3-4 weeks is a guide and if there is a delay to this there will be no refund payable unless we've specifically agreed that we'll deliver by a specific date. Eg. Your wedding day.

Change of Mind:

Once you make your deposit or payment in full, these pairs will make their way swiftly into production. Once this happens we will not be able to accommodate any change of mind on design or lower quantities and we may not be able to issue a refund in part or in full. If you change your mind and the pairs are yet to enter production, we can refund you for the unmade pairs, however your setup fee will be non-refundable.

Incorrect Delivery Address:

Please double check your delivery address on your invoice as this will be the address that your Customs will be delivered to. Budgy Smuggler is not responsible if the pairs are delivered to an incorrect address supplied by you but we can help to try locate or redirect the parcel. Our wish is to have you smuggling in style as soon as possible!
